2 days Hoi An – Village and Architecture highlight

Day 1: Hoi An – Tam Thanh Mural Village & My Son Hollyland

Meal provided: No meal

This morning, pick up and enjoy almost 1 hour of driving from Hoi An center to Tam Thanh mural village – the painted village.

Along the way, we will pay a visit to the Vietnamese Heroic Mother Statue.

Coming to the village, you are wandering the little streets taking photographs of the graffiti and works of art that portray real life as well as imaginary scenes.

After that, get into the private car and heading to My Son Sanctuary, a cluster of abandoned and partially ruined Hindu Temples constructed between the 4th and the 14th century AD by the kings of Champa (Chiem Thanh in Vietnamese). The temples are dedicated to the worship of the god Shiva, known under various local names, the most important of which is "Bhadresvara". From the 4th to the 14th century AD, the valley at My Son was a site of religious ceremony for kings of the ruling dynasties of Champa, as well as a burial place for Cham royalty and national heroes. It was closely associated with the nearby Cham cities of Indrapura (Dong Duong) and Shimamura (Tra Kieu). At one time, the site encompassed over 70 temples as well as numerous stele bearing historically important inscriptions in Sanskrit and Cham. The My Son temple complex is regarded one of the foremost Hindu temple complexes in Southeast Asia and is the foremost heritage site of this nature in Vietnam. It is often compared with other historical temple complexes in Southeast Asia, such as Borobudur of Java in Indonesia, Angkor Wat of Cambodia, Bagan of Myanmar and Ayutthava of Thailand. As of 1999, My Son has been recognized by UNESCO as a world heritage site. Coming back to Hoi An. Drop off at your hotel.
