We pick you up at 6pm with the rickshaws at your hotel in the city center. In case your hotel is away from the center, we can send a vehicle to pick you up at extra charge. Hope you did not have a snack in the afternoon because the evening will be dedicated to food, food and food

Let's continue with a very important part of Hue's cuisine, its vegetarian meals, inherited from a long and strong Buddhist tradition. Each place we step in will offer an immersion into a facet of Hue's culture. Next delicacies, we have some STREET FOODS for a change. Take a low seat on the pavement and look at the people creating incredible dishes in their micro-kitchen. It smells delicious and it surely is. We have some CRISPY SALTED PANCAKE, a symbol of Hue all around the country, and some GRILLED PORK on a lemongrass skewer. Yes, fine cuisine can also be found in the streets. We are in the imperial city after all. We end the evening with a dessert at a local stall selling the TRADITIONAL MIXED SWEET SOUPS of Hue. It may look weird at the first sight but don't be fooled by the appearance, it is de-li-cious."

Stay overnight in Hue.

Day 13: Ho Chi Minh - Cu Chi Tunnels – Fly to Siem Reap

Meal provided: Breakfast

This morning, transfer to visit Cu Chi Tunnels which is an incredible underground tunnel network constructed by Vietnamese resistance fighters during the long struggle for independence. The Cu Chi Tunnel system had been created long time back, from 1948 to assist Viet Minh in the combat with French. And it was continuing built over 25 years later. It was an underground city with living areas, kitchens, storage, weapons factories, field hospitals, command centers. From 1988, two sections of tunnels have been open for visitors.

You are free to chill out and relax. Depending on your departure flight, your private driver and car will pick you up from the hotel and transfer you to the airport in time for your flight to Siem Reap.

Welcome to Cambodia. Upon arrival at Siem Reap Airport, obtain your Cambodia visa and then clear Immigration and Customs. After collecting your baggage, exit the airport to meet outside your driver. He will be holding a sign with your names on it. From the airport, you will be privately transferred to your lovely hotel/ resort. Settle in and enjoy rest of day at your leisure.

Stay overnight in Siem Reap.

Day 14: Siem Reap - Angkor discovery by Tuk Tuk - Phare Circus

Meal provided: Breakfast

In the morning, pick up by tuk tuk and visit the South Gate (with its huge statues depicting the churning of the ocean of milk), the ancient capital of Angkor Thom (12th century), Bayon Temple (unique for its 54 towers decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avolokitesvara), the Royal Enclosure, Phimeanakas, the Elephants Terrace and the Terrace of the Leper King.

Afternoon, visit the most famous of all the temples on the plain of Angkor: Angkor Wat. The temple complex covers 81 hectares and is comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing. Its distinctive five towers are emblazoned on the Cambodian flag and the 12th century masterpiece is considered by art historians to be the prime example of classical Khmer art and architecture.

Angkor Wat's five towers symbolize Meru's five peaks - the enclosed wall represents the mountains at the edge of the world and the surrounding moat, the ocean beyond.

This evening, enjoy the Phare circus show. More than just a circus, Phare performers use theater, music, dance and modern circus arts to tell uniquely Cambodian stories; historical, folk and modern. The young circus artists will astonish you with their energy, emotion, enthusiasm and talent, making Phare Circus the top-rated evening entertainment in Siem Reap.

Stay Overnight in Siem Reap.

Day 15: Banteay Srei, Kbal Spean And Pre Rup Sunset

Meal provided: Breakfast, Lunch

Depart this morning for Banteay Srei, the only major temple that was not built by a monarch. It was constructed in the 10th century and was dedicated to the Hindu god - Shiva. Banteay Srei translates to "Citadel of the Women" and is one of Angkor's most significant structures as its walls are decorated with elaborate carvings which have been preserved remarkably well.

Continue on a short drive to Kbal Spean, which translates to "Bridge Head". From the entrance it is an easy 3 km hike up to the hill passing through a thick forest offering beautiful views over the surrounding plains. On top you will find a river with many rocks under the surface holding inscriptions and Hindu statues referred to as lingas which date back to the 11th century. There is also a waterfall on top that drops significant amounts of water during the wet season but dries up entirely during the height of the dry season (March/April).

Enjoy a simple picnic lunch before returning back to Siem Reap mid afternoon. In the rainy season the route may be slippery and good footwear is advised.

This afternoon can be spent at leisure, you can continue your exploration of the temples of Angkor. Start at Banteay Kdei, a 12th-Century temple that is known locally as 'Citadel of Monks' Cells'. It's one of the smaller temples in the area which makes for a great introduction to the Angkor architecture, with intricate carvings and dramatic crumbling towers. Then continue to Pre Rup for Sunset - a crematorium temple surrounded by lovely countryside.

Stay overnight in Siem Reap.

Day 16: Siem Reap departure

Meal provided: Breakfast

Free leisure at your own time for rolling at local markets or shopping until transfer to Siem Reap international airport for departure flight back to the next destination.
