Luang Prabang - 5 Days

Day 1: Arrive in Luang Prabang

Meal: Dinner

On your arrival, meet your private tour guide and transfer to the hotel in the city centre. In the evening, attending to welcome dinner with Baci ceremony and Lao traditional dance show. Briefly the Baci is a ceremony to celebrate a special event, whether a marriage, a homecoming, a welcome, a birth, or one of the annual festivals. A mother is given a baci after she has recovered from a birth, the sick are given baxis to facilitate a cure, officials are honored by baxis, and novice monks are wished luck with a baci before entering the temple. The Baci ceremony can take place any day of the week and all year long, preferably before noon or before sunset. The term more commonly used is su kwan, which means "calling of the soul". Overnight in Luang Prabang

Day 2: Luang Prabang - half day tour

Meal: Breakfast

The morning will be free to relax, and enjoy the luxury hotel facilities. In the afternoon, your city tour begins with a visit to the Traditional Art and Ethnology Center to learn about Laos' many ethnic cultures. We then head to the magnificent Wat Xiengthong with its roofs sweeping low to the ground, which represents classical Laotian architecture. We still have time to visit the Royal Palace Museum, which hosts a range of interesting artifacts. A visit to Luang Prabang would be incomplete without ascending the 329 steps to the top of Phousi Hill for a beautiful sunset view of the city and its glowing reflection on the Mekong River. The tour ends after a visit to the famous Night Market, where you can find a lovely collection of handmade textiles made by local and hill tribe people surrounding Luang Prabang. Overnight in Luang Prabang

Day 3: Luang Prabang - Pak Ou caves

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

In the morning, we embark on cruise upstream on the Mekong River, which also gives us a breathtaking view of the tranquil countryside, before reaching the mysterious Pak Ou Caves, two linked caves crammed with thousands of gold lacquered Buddha statues of various shapes and sizes left by pilgrims. We will have chance to visit some local village on the way back to Luang Prabang. Arriving back in town, we will take a short visit to the Ock Pop Tock Living Craft Center, where you will have a short tour so you get information about Silk, about weaver, about the Women that work in the Centre. You can have hands-on experience with joining a class of traditional weaving. The class starts with an introduction to silks, dyeing, and weaving techniques. There is a guide and a Master Weaver who will help you to make your own placemat. After stroll around the center, you can enjoy a drink (your account) at the terrace of Silk Road Café overlooking the Mekong River. This is also one of the best spots to admire sunset in Luang Prabang. Overnight in Luang Prabang

Day 4: Luang Prabang - Kuang Si Waterfall - Elephant Experience

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

An early start gives you the fantastic opportunity to participate in the daily morning rituals of saffron-clad monks collecting offerings of Alms (ubiquitous sticky rice) from the faithful residents. This tradition is unique in Laos, being the only Buddhist nation still preserving the procession. From there, we will take a short visit to the morning local market near the Royal Palace. At the market, you can find anything from rice, to fresh vegetables, to steamed fish, frogs, and anything else that might be the day's catch, just set up on the ground, this is what the locals do every day. This is really the chance for you to get a real flavor of the local culture. From there, we will transfer out of town to Kuang Si Fall Butterflies Park, where we will have the authentic breakfast in the middle of the beautiful green nature. During the breakfast, we will chat with the two owners of the Butterflies Park to better understand the Lao nature and
